Subject. Feeding of men employed to drag the car during the next car-festival of the Nanjangud Temple

Reference: Mysore D.C.'s No. 226 dated 10 "March 03

The Car of the Sri Srikanteswaraswami temple is a big and heavy one. Great difficulty is experienced in dragging it during the car-festival. In addition to such of the temple servants and pilgrims as can be had for the work, the ryots of the neighbouring villages have to be indented upon ~~for the occasion~~. The Amildar of Nanjangud in reporting to the Deputy missioner the extreme difficulty experienced in dragging the car during the temple car festival, proposed that a sum of Rs 100 may be sanctioned to be spent on feeding and giving suitable presents to the ryots engaged for dragging the car.

2 The Dy Comr directed the Amildar to call for a meeting of the Dharma darsis and to report
their opinion in the matter

3. The Dharmadarsis propose that the sum may be sanctioned from the income of the temple during the car festival as noted in the margin *.

to the ~~Dy Comr~~, the Amildar added that the work
expected from the ryots

was very difficult and

and that without the expenditure proposed, it was very difficult to have the car dragged.

The Dy Comr in forwarding the records bearing on the subject, reports that the number of people attending the Jatra this year will be very small owing to plague and requests that a sum of Rs 100/- may be sanctioned, as a special case, out of the temple savings which amounts to Rs 4249-8-3.

In this letter no 226 dated 10th March 1903.

The revised Jaadik Patti of the temple provides a sum of Rs 517 for the annual car festival.

simultaneously and as the devotees do not gather in sufficiently large numbers on account of plague, the services of the adjoining villagers have to be utilized; though such villagers have not to be actually paid any wages, yet they will have to be at least fed on that day for which not less than Rs 100/- will be required. He also suggests that this cost cannot be sanctioned from the Temple funds & recommends that the dry beds of 2 abandoned tanks viz Kesava Katte & Jaipur Hobli & Sandya & Rampur Hobli might be granted to the temple for cultivation and the income derived therefrom utilized towards this proposed feeding as also for the repairing of the cars for which also no funds have been provided.

Submitted to the Dy Secretary

It has already been pointed out to the Dy Comr that this will be an unusual charge on the savings of the Institution.

The question of granting the dry beds of the two abandoned tanks has to be referred to the Revenue Commissioner for favour of opinion —

In this Office Docket
no 1888 dated 14th
march 1903.

The proposal to feed the non-Brahmins who 9/10/03 drag the cars does not seem to be a practicable one, and Rs 100/- will probably be quite insufficient for the purpose - The proposal may may for the present be negatived.

On the question of granting to the temple the dry beds of two tanks [illegible], further details may be called for from the Dy/Com.

The orders of the late Dewan were issued in Govt Pro: No 2238-9 dated 15th December 1904.

The Deputy Commissioner reports that a sum of Rs 100/- was spent for feeding during the year 1905, that as feeding was conducted by the devotees themselves no amount was spent during the year 1906 and that as some devotees supplied grain, only Rs 56-8-0 were spent during the year 1907, and now solicits the grant of Rs 100/- permanently from the savings of the temple for this purpose and to utilize the unspent amount of the Year 1906, viz Rs 100/- during the ensuing car festival for feeding purposes

This year the car festival is reported to come off on the 16th March 1908.

Noted 16/3/1908) Muzrai Secretary's remarks:—

Instead of going so far back as the year 1906 and ordering the utilization of the unspent amount of Rs100 of that year, it may be ordered that a sum of Rs 100 might be utilized for the purpose this year out of the savings of the temple. If at the time of the car festival, Charitably disposed persons come forward to conduct the feeding then the sanctioned amount need not be operated upon at all. The D. Comm. may be requested to report as to what actually takes place this year. The question of

Sir,

In reply to your docket No. 1888/165-02 dated 17th March 1903, I have the honour to state that the amount of Rs. 517 allotted for the car festival of the Sri Sricumbeswara swami temple at Nanjangud, is utilized as detailed in the margin and that nothing therefore could be spared from this for other purposes. As 5 cars run simultaneously and as the devotees do not gather in sufficiently large numbers on account of plague, the services of the adjoining villages have to be utilized. Though such villagers have not to be actually paid any wages wages yet they will have to be atleas fed on that day, for which not less tha Rs. 100/ will be required.

If this cost cannot be sanctioned from the Temple funds, the Amildar recommends that the dry beds of 2 abandoned tanks viz Kesave Kattee of Jayapur Hobli Tandya of Rampur Hobli - as marginally noted, might be granted in the name of the Sri Sri Gunteswara Swami temple for cultivati and the income derived therefrom may be utilized towards this proposed feeding as also for the repairing of the cars for which also no funds have been provided.

SIR,

Adverting to Government-Proc: No. 2238-9 dated the 15th Decr 1904 sanctioning as an experimental measure an expenditure of Rs 100/- per annum for feeding the persons whose services are utilized for dragging the cars of the Sri Srikanteswara Swami temple at Nanjangud and calling for the submission of a report after 3 years, I have the honor to state that from the accompanying yadast No. 154/458 dated 18.1.08 received from the Sub Division officer, Nanjangud Division, it is observed that a sum of Rs 100/- was spent for feeding during the year 1905, that as feeding was conducted by the devotees no amount was spent out of the sanctioned Sanctioned amount during the year 1906 and that as some devotees supplied grain, only 56-8-0 were spent out-of the sanctioned amount during 1907.

2. As the Car festival comes off on the 16th March 1908, the Amildar requests permission to draw the unspent amount of Rs 100/- sanctioned for the year 1906 and to utilize the same during the ensuing car festival for feeding purposes.

3. Both the Sub Divisional officer and the Amildar recommend that a sum of Rs 100/- per annum for the purpose stated above, may be sanctioned permanently from the Savings of the temple.

4. Under the circumstances set forth in the Amildar's report No 85 dated 11.1.08, a sum of Rs 100/- per annum may be sanctioned permanently for feeding persons whose services are utilized to drag the five cars besides according sanction to utilize the unspent amount of the year 1906 viz Rs
